

Kate's obsessed with Sienna's skin

Turns out that even royals have celeb crushes! KATE MIDDLETON has been coveting SIENNA MILLER's glowing skin so much, she now insists on using the same skin care products as the British bombshell. "Kate's fixated on Sienna Miller's skin," a source close to Kate tells Life & Style. "She read in an article that Sienna uses a range of products from celebrity dermatologist Dr. David Colbert, so Kate ordered the whole skin care line for herself!"

We don't blame the Duchess of Cambridge for coveting Sienna's flawless face.

Kate has that newlywed glow!
